Declarant, its successors and assigns, by this Declaration and all future owners of the residence units, by their acceptance of their deeds, covenant and agree that:

- (a) The common areas and facilities shall remain undivided and no owner shall bring any action for partition, it being agreed that this restriction is necessary in order to preserve the rights of the owners with respect to the operation and management of the condominium. All repairs and maintenance of common areas and facilities shall be by Owners Association and shall be a part of the common expenses to be paid by assessment against residence unit owners as provided in Section 1, Article VI of the By-Laws of Owners Association (Exhibit "E").
- (b) The residence units shall be occupied and used by the respective owners only as a private dwelling for the owner, his family, tenants and social guests and for no other purpose.
- (c) No noxious or offensive activity shall be carried on upon any residence unit or upon the common area, nor shall anything be done thereon which may be or may become an annoyance or nuisance to the neighborhood.
- (d) No structure of a temporary character, trailer, basement, tent, shack, garage, barn, or other outbuilding shall be used on any unit or on the common area at any time as a residence, either temporarily or permanently.
- (e) No sign of any kind shall be displayed to the public view on the units or common areas, except (1) on the common area, signs used by Declarant to advertise units for sale during the construction and initial sales period, and (2), on a residence unit, one professional sign of no more than five (5) square feet advertising units for sale or rent by the Unit Owner.
- (f) No animals, livestock, or poultry of any kind shall be raised, bred or kept in any unit or the common area, except that dogs, cats, or other household pets may be kept in units provided that they are not kept, bred, or maintained for any commercial purpose, nor shall any animal be permitted to run loose on the common area.

- (i) The owners of the respective residence units agree that if any portion of the common areas and facilities encroaches upon the residence units, a valid easement for the encroachment and for the maintenance of same, so long as it stands, shall and does exist. In the event the multifamily structure is partially or totally destroyed, and then rebuilt, the owners of residence units agree that minor encroachment of parts of the common areas and facilities due to construction shall be permitted and that valid easement for said encroachment and the maintenance hereof shall exist.
- (j) An owner of a residence unit shall automatically, upon becoming the owner of a residence unit or units, be a member of Peppertree Association Section Two and shall remain a member of said Owners Association until such time as his ownership ceases for any reason, at which time his membership in said Owners Association shall automatically cease.
- (k) The owners of residence units covenant and agree that the administration of the condominium shall be in accordance with the provisions of this Declaration, and the By-Laws of Owners Association which are made a part of and attached as Exhibit "E".

(n) Annual assessments and special assessments for common expenses and special unit assessments may be levied by Owners Association, as provided in Article VI of the By-Laws of Owners Association, Exhibit "E" attached hereto. All sums assessed by Owners Association but unpaid for the share of the common expenses, and any special unit assessment chargeable to any residence unit shall constitute a lien on such residence unit prior to all other liens except only (1) tax liens on the residence unit in favor of any assessing unit and special district, and (2) all sums unpaid on a first mortgage of record. Such lien may be foreclosed by suit by the manager or Board of Trustees, acting on behalf of the owners of the residence units, in like manner as a mortgage of real property. In any such foreclosure the residence unit owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the residence unit, if so provided in the By-Laws, and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The manager or Board of Trustees, acting on behalf of the owners of the residence units, shall have power, unless prohibited herein, to bid on the unit at foreclosure sale, and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage and convey the same. Such unpaid share of common expenses or assessments shall be deemed to be common expenses collectible from all of the residence units including such acquirer, his successors and assigns.

(p) The respective residence units shall not be rented by the owners thereof for transient or hotel purposes, which shall be defined as (1) rental for any period less than thirty (30) days; or (2) any rental if the occupants of the residence unit are provided customary hotel services such as room service for food and beverage, maid service, furnishing laundry and linen, and bellboy service. Other than the foregoing obligations, the owners of the respective residence units shall have the absolute right to lease same provided that said lease is made subject to the covenants and restrictions contained in this Declaration and in the By-Laws of Owners Association.

(q) Damage to or destruction of all or any part of the common and limited common areas and facilities of the condominium property shall be promptly repaired and restored by the manager or Board of Trustees substantially in accordance with the original plans, specifications and design for construction.

(r) In a voluntary conveyance of a residence unit, other than to a mortgagee in lieu of a foreclosure, the grantee of the unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments by Owners Association against the latter for his share of the common expenses up to the time of the grant or conveyance, without prejudice to the grantee's right to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee therefor. However, any such grantee shall be entitled to a statement from the manager or Board of Trustees of Owners Association, as the case may be, setting forth the amounts of the unpaid assessments against the grantor due Owners Association and such grantee shall not be liable for, nor shall the residence unit conveyed be subject to a lien for, any unpaid assessments made by Owners Association against the grantor in excess of the amount therein set forth.

(s) The Board of Trustees shall obtain for the benefit of all residence unit owners and mortgagees, as their interests appear, fire and extended insurance coverage on all buildings and structures of the condominium property to the full insurable value thereof. Such insurance shall be purchased on condition that the insurer will issue separate certificates of insurance to mortgagees of individual units and provide for notice to mortgagees before cancellation. If the Board fails to purchase and pay for such insurance, any mortgagee may advance the premium therefor and any such advances shall be due and payable immediately as a common expense. All insurance proceeds becoming payable shall be paid to the Board of Trustees in trust for the benefit of all owners and mortgagees, as their interests appear, to be expended for repair and restoration as provided in sub-section (g) herein.

(t) So long as Declarant, its successors and assigns, owns one or more of the residence units established and described herein, said Declarant, its successors and assigns shall be subject to the provisions of this Declaration and of all attachments hereto; and said Declarant covenants to take no action which would adversely affect the rights of Owners Association with respect to assurances against latent defects in the property or other right assigned to Owners Association, the members of such corporation and their successors in interest, as their interests may appear, by reason of the establishment of the condominium.
